

Christmas Program reception

After the evening performance of the Christmas Program, Home and School sponsors a reception in the cafeteria. Each family is asked to bring a finger food dessert while home and school furnishes the punch. Three or four parents are also asked to help work during the reception to fill cups with punch, monitor the dessert table, and help cleanup.